

Leslie Love Artist Biography

Leslie (Wiegand) Love was born and raised on Vancouver Island, down a winding dead-end road on a land called Song Farm, where she currently resides with her family again. She completed a BFA, Honors in Visual Arts with distinction at the University of Victoria in 2003, focusing on drawing, photography and painting. Her multimedia works often combine nostalgic family imagery, found, thrifted, gifted, and natural handmade materials. The medium informs and inspires her art, as she leaves wood grain, flaws, and unique qualities of materials exposed, revealing her concept and process. Her work depicts connections and relationships between people and demonstrates her deep love and respect for the environment.
