Artist Bio

My interest and talent for art emerged naturally in my younger years while living in Duncan. Family and vocation brought an extended hiatus while serving pastoral and campus Christian missions on the Island and Winnipeg, and teaching practical theology modules overseas in Ukraine, Armenia, Amsterdam, and Haiti. Upon retiring, my art interests were rekindled. I receive great joy in the colours and rhythms that come with painting landscapes, seascape, and village scenes locally, from my travels in Canada, and overseas. Now living in Nanaimo with my wife and close to our family I am becoming established as an artist. (B.Mus., Dip.C.S., M.Div., D.Min.)
